

Topic: The Kern County EIR

Phillip Peters has always felt a call to work for the betterment of his community.

Peters was born and raised in Bakersfield where he attended Garces Memorial High School. Motivated by a desire to fight back against government overreach and to preserve the unique qualities that make Kern County great, he has prioritized community service and has been active in a number of boards, committees, and nonprofits. These include serving as a member of the Workforce Investment Board, the Kern County Oil Contractors Association, and the Association of Builders and Contractors Government Affairs Board.

Phillip believes that government works best when focused on creating opportunity. Having worked in both oil and agriculture, Peters has experienced first-hand the challenges these industries face, as well as the many benefits they bring to Kern County. As co-owner of Williams Cleaning Systems, he knows well the burdensome regulations imposed on business owners by the State of California and has consistently used his voice to fight back against policies that restrain our county's growth. Phillip has written multiple published articles on topics ranging from water and oil issues, to labor and education.

In 2014 Phillip Peters was elected to the Kern High School District Board, where he focused on improving access to career technical education, providing more choices in children's education, empowering local educators, and ensuring accountability and transparency at all levels of education.

As District Director for Kern County Supervisor Mick Gleason, Phillip comprehends the particular challenges facing the First District and is uniquely positioned to continue building on previous successes. From the military and aerospace industries, to ag and oil, Phillip grasps the diversity of each region in this geographically large district and is committed to bridging the gap between East and West Kern.

He was elected District 1 Supervisor in March 2020 and assumed office in January 2021.

When Phillip is not working, he enjoys spending time with his family, especially his wife, Brittany and son, Michael. He also enjoys traveling, hunting, song writing, woodworking and jiu jitsu.

There is a growing use of carbon-based materials and products worldwide. The 21st century may become known as ‘the carbon era.’ The petroleum industry is playing an integral role by supplying the necessary raw materials. Discussed are the increasing opportunities and needs, and what this means to the future of oil production.

Ramon (Ray) Elias is a California resident, engineer, scientist, inventor, and area business owner. His career spans over 48 years in energy and business both in the U.S. and different parts of the World. He began his career with Getty Oil Company in Bakersfield and has since worked as a field engineer, a research scientist, business owner, and all-purpose grunt. He’s authored over 25 technical papers, has been awarded U.S. patents, is a co-founder and executive officer of Santa Maria Energy, LLC and resides in Santa Maria, California.

Spotlight on Oil Field Education: The Taft Lighthouse

Tucked into the foothills just west of Bakersfield between 2 tumbleweeds and a pumpjack is a small town with a deep history of discovery. Some may know it as 11-C camp or Siding Number Two or maybe even as Moron. This city's name is Taft and while the gushers may be dry and the Standard Oil office is long gone there is now a lighthouse in Taft and if you want to see it you'll have to get to Taft Highschool where you'll find the Taft Oil Technology Academy- A CPA Lighthouse Academy.

The Taft Oil Technology Academy is a program that seeks to create partnerships between the petroleum industry, Taft High School administration and it's teachers to "guide students to realize their full potential by emphasizing high standards of academic excellence and personal growth, so students become competitive, competent, and contributing members of society with high moral character." The program is focused on the Petroleum Industry and STEM careers and according to Coordinator and Technology Teacher Ted Pendergrass, it seeks to help students "connect with industry, to connect the world of work with their education."

Students are introduced to subjects such as Petroleum Exploration, Geology, Drilling and Completions, Production, Reservoir Management, Transportation, Refining and even finance. The program has been so successful that out of the 400 California Partnership Academies it is 1 of only 16 chosen to be Lighthouse Academies and is the only lighthouse academy in California with a focus on the Petroleum Industry. This group even took second place in the OTC Energy Challenge for 2021 competing amongst the rest of the nation for solutions to real world energy problems. You can read all about their victory and project "Clean Sweep" at <http://2021.otcnet.org/otc-energy-challenge>. Titles and recognition are certainly well deserved but the real victory of this program comes from its graduation rate which is nearly 99%. Of the graduating seniors 72% go to a 2- or 4-year school, 15% enter the military and the remaining 13% enter vocation or certified training.

Yes, there is a lighthouse in Taft and with the continued support of Petroleum Industry Partners, Administrators and Teachers, this lighthouse will shine through the successful lives of its students long after the Jameson #17 finally comes down.

API Social Sponsorship

The American Petroleum Institute SJV Chapter is actively looking for networking social sponsorships. These networking socials help to build relationships, market products or services, and promote a positive outlook on the local oil and natural gas industry.

Sponsoring a social will include the following

- Email distribution of your company name to the API contact list (600+ industry related emails)
- Company logo and promotional items can be promoted at sign in/raffle table during the social
- Social event turnout is typically 40-60 industry related people
- Event will be promoted at API general meeting and API newsletter (600+ industry related emails)
- Possibility to have joint social with SPE (Society Petroleum Engineers) which will include their email distribution/newsletter promotion

Social Sponsorship Cost

- Cost can range from $600 - $2,000+
- Lower end sponsorships typically do not involve a private room secluded for the event but more of a brewery type setting providing appetizers or food for guest
- Higher end sponsorships will typically have a private room (petroleum club, 1933) or any place that will accommodate the event (providing appetizers/Dinner/Alcohol or what is within the budget)
- We can work with any budget
- If sponsorship costs are too high, we can look to host a co-sponsor social (you and another company) cost split in half
